Porkopolis Filling Up

CINCINNATI April [illegible] —The city is fast filling up with [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] to the Convention which meets here on Wednesday. Full delegations [illegible] [illegible] at the [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] here have arrived.

It is said that the New York free traders are for Grant. It is thought, however, that the question will be satisfactorily settled by to-morrow and that the platform will not differ essentially from that presented by the Missouri Convention under which this Convention was called.

At a meeting of the New York delegation Whitelaw Reid presented Horace Greeley's views on the subject of the tariff plank, which are briefly to leave the subject till the election of Congressmen.

The struggle for the nomination still appears to be between Adams and Davis and the present situation is not essentially changed from that heretofore stated.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

EASTERN STATES

The Bolters' Convention Prospective a Fizzle

CHICAGO April [illegible] [illegible] patches from Cincinnati this morning [illegible] [illegible] at a tremendous struggle between the adherents of Trumbull and Davis. From this State it would appear that each party is so determined to carry its point that neither will be willing to sacrifice the success of the movement rather than submit to a square defeat. Much ill feeling is displayed, and if the action of Illinoisans be any indication of the general state of affairs it presages a notable failure of the whole movement.

The Missouri Mob

CHICAGO April 30 —A St. Louis dispatch says that Gov Brown of Missouri received advices from Adjutant General Seigle and a correspondent from Cass county announcing that the presence of troops has restored confidence to the people. The Sheriff is at Harrisonville with a posse to preserve order. The Governor declares his intention to restore peace by the enforcement of the law at all hazards and to bring the murderers to justice.

A dispatch from Holden Mo says, however, that refugees from Cass county, who arrived last night, assert that the reign of terror continues, that the mob declares death against all connected, however remotely, with the Bond imbroglio. The father of Cline has gone mad over the death of his son, and a younger son had taken him and fled. The mother and daughters have also fled on foot.

Church News

The statement that the majority of the Methodist Book Committee had united upon a report to the General Conference relative to the alleged Book Concern frauds is untrue; on the contrary, while the majority report asserts that the report of experts who examined the books of all the officers of the Concern fails to charge any of them with wrong doing. The minority declare the charge of fraud and mismanagement fully confirmed.

Florida News.

TALLAHASSEE April [illegible] —The Supreme Court has decided that Acting Governor Day is the legal Executive and that ex-Governor Reed must [illegible] and by the decision of the Court whenever it is invoked. The Chief Justice dissented.

More of the Bolters

CINCINNATI April [illegible] —It is now settled that Judge Stanley Matthews will be temporary Chairman of the Convention. The friends of Adams appear hardly as confident. Kentucky delegation at a meeting this morning declared formally for Trumbull but seemed indisposed to contend for any particular candidate. At a meeting of the Illinois delegation the friends of Davis, Trumbull and Palmer made an agreement by which Davis will be entitled to half of that delegation. The other half will be divided between Trumbull and Palmer.

Destructive Fire

NASHUA, N. H. April [illegible] —A fire this morning destroyed the car house of the Worcester & Nashua Railroad with its contents and the rolling mill of the Nashua Iron & Steel Company.

New York City Charter Vetoed.

ALBANY April 30 —The Governor has vetoed the New York City charter. It is believed that the House will sustain the veto.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

The Alabama Matter

LONDON April 30 —The Times this morning, on the present phase of the Alabama matter, congratulates the United States Government for proposing that the liabilities of neutrals shall extend beyond the direct consequences of breaches of neutrality, thus (says the Times) paving the way for a satisfactory settlement of the differences existing between England and America.

MEXICO

NEW YORK April 30 —A special from Matamoros from Riviera's camp fifty leagues distant says he will march on that city to-night and is confident of its capture. He has four thousand men and twelve guns. Matamoros is defended by five bastion forts connected with strong parapets encircling the city with flanks on the river and lunettes situated one hundred yards in the rear between the forts. The regular troops, National Guard and police number fifteen hundred. A small force of revolutionists are near Bal, south of the river and intend to capture the place and hold it to prevent reinforcements from arriving.

UTAH

400 Prisoners Released

SALT LAKE April [illegible] —In the Third District Court this morning a certified copy of the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States was presented with the ruling that the manner of drawing petit jurors since September [illegible] was illegal. Four hundred prisoners are released by this ruling for murder.

NEVADA

HAMILTON, April [illegible] —An official letter received here states that all negotiations are closed. The money is ready.

Work on the Elko and Hamilton narrow gauge railroad will commence next month and be pushed with ample funds and energy.

Silver Wreath and half of Lookout mines on Shell creek were sold yesterday to an English company for $500,000.

CALIFORNIA

From San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO April 30 —The party of Californians who went to Guaymas by the steamer Olympia obtained a very valuable concession for the railroad from Guaymas to Tucson, Arizona, there to connect with the Texas and Pacific Railroad. It is said that capital to build the road is secured and that the enterprise will be assisted in every way possible by citizens and officials in Sonora.

The building of Russian Hill street from Montgomery to the summit northward along Jones street is to be commenced immediately.

The rise in stocks during the time since the failure of John Sime & Co is so great that the creditors will now be paid in full from the proceeds of all which the bank held and was at that time considered worthless.

The Atlantic and Pacific delegation and the committee of 100 are understood to have agreed on the main points of a place of junction. As soon as details are arranged the programme will be made public.

The wealth of San Francisco is increasing through the incorporation of new mining companies at the rate of $10,000,000 daily. The increase to-day up to [illegible] P. M. was $18,000,000.

To arrive overland this evening: Geo. Pelton, Portland.

The Sheriff of Nevada county has arrived here in pursuit of two boys who raided upon the bark Ferri for China on Saturday. They are sons of respectable people living there. They have committed several highway robberies.

Lawrence Jefferson Murray, better known as Larry Murray, author of the terms "conniption" and "slumgullion" [illegible] and [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] of the Democratic stripe, died last night.

The trial of James H. Cano and W. [illegible] for faro dealing to-day resulted in the acquittal of the defendants, the fact being elicited that the cards were bottom up during the dealing and the prosecution being unable to show that the game was a square honest faro as charged in the complaint. [illegible] however was arrested on a second charge before leaving the Court room.

INTERIOR CALIFORNIA DISPATCHES

VALLEJO April 30 —A terrible cutting affray occurred on capital street last night. Jas Patterson was stabbed four times by Jas Jackson—two wounds in the breast and back.

LOS ANGELES April 30 —A late arrival from Owens river district, which is reliable, says the merchants of Lone Pine are quarreling among themselves as to the disposition of the funds sent for the relief of the sufferers. The wounded and poor Mexicans left homeless by the catastrophe, from the last report, will receive but but little of the money, but it will be divided proportionately between the merchants who will make a good thing of their losses.

To-day has been the hottest of the season.

Last week a Mexican [illegible] red a horse and buggy valued at $[illegible] from a livery stable and attempted to escape to lower California. He was followed and captured 100 miles south of here and brought back and lodged in jail.

The wool clip this year is larger than that of last year. Up to date 500,000 pounds have been shipped. The quality is generally regarded as inferior, being much shorter.

No intelligence of the schooner Hattie Porter. She is now out over four weeks.

In the District Court in the case of the people vs Fenwick for the murder of Wilson, out of a venire of 180 jurors only 5 were obtained, making 10 in all. A special venire for 100 more was issued.

VALLEJO April [illegible] —Work in the construction of the department on Mare Island will be suspended during the month of May owing to a lack of funds.

The examination of the U. S. steamer Mohican resulted in proving her unworthy.

Patterson, who was stabbed last night by one Jackson, is still lying in a critical condition. Jackson's examination is postponed until after Thursday next.

Mrs Cojan was pronounced insane and sent to Stockton to-day.

OREGON

Work on the new Methodist Church at Salem has ceased.

According to the Statesman the dogs of Salem have taken to base ball.

The Democrats of Washington county will hold their Convention on the 11th of May.

A little boy was seen in a canoe at Salem a few days ago. Afterwards the canoe was seen empty and the local of the Statesman thereupon supposes a case of drowning.

The Josephine Democratic Convention made the following nominations: State Senator, E. N. Tolen; Representative, A. L. Waldon; Clerk, Chas Hughes; Sheriff, Dan Green.

Mr. Myer, the importer of blooded stock in Southern Oregon, weighed his two noted colts Louise and Reliance on Tuesday of last week. Louise is one year old and weighs 1,062 pounds; Reliance is eleven months old and weighs 862 pounds.

On Monday evening a woman at Salem made a start for the river apparently with the intention of drowning herself but was pursued, overtaken and after a struggle was carried back to her home, where she was treated for insanity and at last accounts had become quieter.

Gov. Grover did not speak his piece at Hillsboro. He was taken suddenly ill and remained in bed. The cause doubtless was that he had heard that the Republicans of Washington county had reunited their forces and were going to give 150 majority against him and his party.

Mr. Rockfellow, while mining near Ashland in Jackson county a few days since found what was supposed to be a part of the tusk of some supposed animal. The delicate little chap seems to have supported a tooth, a small fraction of which measures six feet in length and nine inches in diameter at the larger, and eight inches at the smaller end, and weighs one hundred and thirty-seven pounds.

From the Jacksonville Sentinel we learn that a difficulty occurred at Kerbyville, Josephine county, on Friday last, between Hughes, County Clerk, and ex-Sheriff Chapman. The particulars are about as follows: Chapman, a bedrock Democrat, went to the Clerk's office and applied some very abusive language to Hughes, a soft Democrat, and drew a pistol but did not fire. Hughes drew his pistol and fired one shot, the ball cutting Chapman's coat. Deputy Sheriff Kendall then interposed and hostilities ceased.

THE TERRITORIES

The U. S. Marshal for Montana has captured several parties charged with selling liquor to Indians.

John Keating of Radersburg, Montana, was thrown from his carriage near Helena on the 10th of April and had his leg terribly smashed.

A large freight train of ox wagons reached Helena on the 10th of April which had been seven months on the way from Corinne, a distance of 437 miles. The snow blockade was the delaying cause.

A man named Jim Wabore was shot and instantly killed, near Fort Benton lately, by H. A. Kanouse, the Sheriff of Choteau county. The quarrel arose about a horse. Kanouse was not arrested at last accounts.

F. A. Benjamin, a mining expert, has gone to Montana to investigate the silver lodes of that Territory with a view to the investment of a large amount of money in the purchase of mining property there by leading capitalists of San Francisco.

An Arizona paper calls the following statement of facts "An Amusing Affair." We think our readers will agree with him decidedly. Near Weaver Station, Wm. McFarland was found murdered and horribly mutilated. American residents suspected a Mexican, who had threatened McFarland, pursued and shot him on the spot. The Mexican's friends then killed one of the shooting party. This precipitated a raid, resulting in four dead Mexicans. No five fortified himself in an adobe house, which was blown up and its inmate shot.

POLITICAL NOTES

The Republican Convention of California was held at Sacramento on the 26th April. It declared for Grant and elected delegates to Philadelphia.

"Gentlemen," said a reconstructed rebel Democrat, "Gentlemen, it's no use talking about electing a Democratic President till the great American people are done rallying around the flag." That's what's the matter with the American people, and disappointed sore heads and spoilsmen may as well make a note of it.

Regarding the Cincinnati movement it is a telling fact that not a single Republican member of the House of Representatives is in it, and at best only three or four Senators. The former represent the people, and the fact that not a single member is in sympathy with the movement is a pretty true indication of the feeling of the voters. If not this, what is the significance of the fact that the Republicans of the House of Representatives are solid for Grant.

With the inveracity that has become habitual with it since it began to train with the Democracy, the New York Tribune thus speaks of the political contest in Oregon: "The National and State issues are merged into factional interests, and the dictation of the office holders has inspired a discontent that promises a plentiful crop of defeat and disappointment to the confident leaders of the Administration forces." No dictation of office holders has ever been heard of here, nor any complaint to that effect. The Republicans of Oregon are the "Administration forces," and not a single man who avows himself a Republican has declared against Grant.

Many of the persons proposing to attend the Cincinnati Convention have hit upon a project of doing so without the risk of compromising themselves that is, unless the "new departure shall turn out a brilliant success." They hire rooms in the hotels of that city in the name of other parties. Thus, if the movement turns out a success, they will blossom out into full blown Liberal Republicans. If it proves a failure, they will quietly return home and avow they had neither hand nor part in it. One leading hotel keeper has hired quite a number of rooms in his own name for parties who intend to "hit the Convention if it is a deer, and miss it if it is a calf."

SHORT PARAGRAPHS

The Internal Revenue Office has decided that when manufacturers of soaps claim for their manufactures medical or cosmetic virtues and advertise them as possessing the virtues referred to, the same will be subject to the tax which the revenue law imposes on patent medicines and cosmetics manufactured and offered for sale as such.

Mr. Everts of the Yellowstone exploring party, who it will be remembered was lost in that wonderful region, and came very near being starved to death there, is an applicant for the superintendency of the National Park which Congress has just created by reserving an area of nearly 50 miles square that embraces all the marvels of that marvelous region.

According to the educational report of Commissioner Eaton, American teachers can be found in almost every country on the globe, including China and Japan. They are to be seen in the Sandwich Islands, in Turkey, Syria, Jamaica, Palestine, Tunis and other places where only a Yankee would think of settling down and teaching the young idea how to shoot.

Mr. Lay of the navy, has invented a torpedo which is now before Congress, and for which he asks $150,000, provided it does all he claims for it. He proposes to be able to send it out two miles at sea, keep it under perfect control from the shore by electricity, and direct it under a ship and blow it up, or to let it proceed one mile and cause it to return without exploding, showing the perfect control he has over the infernal machine. It is proposed that a board of naval officers shall examine it and certify that it has all the merits claimed. If what is said of the machine be true it will create a complete revolution in naval warfare, and provide another means of defence against a foreign invasion. As naval officers would have to use it in time of war, they oppose its adoption unless the most perfect tests are made by experienced officers.

The Country for Grant

Speaking of the great demonstration at New York on the 17th of April in favor of General Grant, the New York Herald of the following day said:

Our report of this meeting will show that it was an assemblage largely representing the intelligence, the capital, the business interests and the substantial interests of New York, that they fully comprehend the good work for the city and the country achieved by Gen Grant as the head of the National Government, and that the speeches and the resolutions of the meeting speak the common judgment of the country, so far as made known in the recent State elections and in the conventions of the Republican party. A meeting such as this, in advance of the nomination of the Presidential candidate of either of our two great political parties, is an extraordinary event; but when revolutionary [illegible] are afoot, our solid and responsible citizens are quick to take the alarm and come to the front, in the expression of their judgment on public men and public affairs.

Of the general rally of the Grant men of 1868 for his re-election in 1872 the Herald says:

Connecticut and Rhode Island, in their elections, respond to New Hampshire, New York city responds in her Grant mass meeting to the Republican Conventions of Massachusetts and Pennsylvania, and North Carolina, and the voice of Florida and of Louisiana responds to New York. The country is for another term to Grant; the Cincinnati Convention, as a coalition movement, will fail to reverse the country's judgment, and the Democratic party will have to fight its own battle.

The Far West Freighting Company have fixed the price of freight from Chicago to Corinne, Montana, at $1 75 per 100 pounds, which is said to be a considerable reduction on former rates.

For fifteen years I have been afflicted with Nasal Catarrh, at times so that I could not breathe through the nostrils, accompanied with disagreeable discharges. The disease worked down into my Throat and Lungs, so that of late I have suffered with Asthma, so bad at times that I thought I could not live. I had almost a constant cough with copious expectorations, and my whole system was prostrated. When I applied to DR. ABORN last November, I did not expect to live through the winter. But thanks to DR. ABORN'S Skillful and Successful mode of treatment, I to-day look and feel like a new man. I am entirely cured of the Asthma and Bronchial Disease. My [illegible] are free, appetite good, flesh solid and healthy, and I have gained fifteen pounds and have been able to work on my farm for several weeks past. WEDNESDAY MORNING, MAY 1, 1872.

Senator Trumbull Reviewed.

Democratic papers, among them the Herald, are parading the speech delivered by Senator Trumbull at the Cooper Institute, New York, and are characterizing it as a very able and candid address. It is brought forward as the best plea that can be made for the bolting Republican movement. But a fair examination of it will convince any person that it is studied insincerity; it is totally unworthy of Senator Trumbull's reputation. Let us consider a few points, beginning with this extract:

> The doctrine is now boldly proclaimed by men high in authority that the States of the Union have such powers only as are conferred upon them by the Constitution of the United States, when directly the reverse is true, and States have all powers except such as the Constitution of the United States has conferred upon the United States or has withheld from the States. The difference is this: The Government of the United States is a Government of derivative powers. Thus in the State the Government is inherent; they have all power not denied them, while the Government of the United States has no power except such as is given to it.

Why should Mr. Trumbull say these things? No different "doctrine" as to the rights and powers of the States and the General Government respectively is now proclaimed by men "high in authority" in the Republican party than has been proclaimed and held by the whole party ever since it had an existence. No doctrine is now proclaimed on this subject which has not been proclaimed and upheld for years by Senator Trumbull himself. It is entirely untrue to say that the Republican party or those "high in authority" in it hold that the States of the Union have no powers of their own. Mr. Trumbull has drawn on his invention for this statement, or has taken it from some second-rate Democratic "organ." It is disingenuous, not to say absolutely false; and a man who stands in Mr. Trumbull's position should be ashamed of such utterances.

Again, Mr. Trumbull complains loudly because of the disabilities under which ex-rebels are placed by the fourteenth amendment. He clamors for complete amnesty. Now who bore a leading part in imposing these disabilities? Who but Senator Trumbull himself? He supported the fourteenth amendment. He was against amnesty. But, having borne a leading part in crystalizing this principle in the Constitution, he now faces about, gets on Democratic ground and denounces with bitterness those who have not the political agility to shift positions as fast as he can.

Senator Wilson, of Massachusetts, in another meeting at Cooper Institute a few days after the delivery of Trumbull's speech replied to the latter in a most forcible and telling way. We make some extracts in which Trumbull's inconsistencies and misrepresentations are strikingly shown:

> These men tell you they will go to Cincinnati for civil service reform. I say to you to-night that all through these years past, the Departments at Washington have been struggling night and day to improve their condition, and they have succeeded in doing so, and never had we as good clerks in our offices in the city of Washington, never have they been as well filled as they are filled now. But there is another matter about which Mr. Trumbull told us. I want to call your attention to that too. He told you it was contrary to law for military men to discharge civil duties. I am sorry he told you that, for it is not true. We did not pass any such law. We have a law that will not allow military men to be appointed to civil offices, but we have no law to prevent men in the army being detailed to civil duties.
>
> Mr. Trumbull complained that we have an army officer that brought us President's messages. If he looked into the history of the country he would find that it was done before. The first message ever sent to the Senate of the United States was on the 7th of August, 1789, and it was borne by Maj. Gen. Henry Knox. That officer carried one more message from Gen. Washington to the Senate. He was the President's companion during the war, and perhaps his most intimate personal friend, and when Gen. Jackson came in he appointed Major Donelson Secretary. When Abraham Lincoln came in he took John Hay, an army officer, and detailed him for duty in the White House; but when Andy Johnson came in he filled the White House with military men.
> Gentlemen, Trumbull should know all this. When a Senator of the United States leaves his post at Washington and goes up and down the country speaking to people, he ought to understand whereof he speaks, and be acquainted with the facts of history, and know what he is talking about. In short, gentlemen, I never read a speech so full of errors in the short space of two columns, as Trumbull's speech. He says, or rather asks the question, "If Andrew Johnson filled the White House with office-holders, military men, what would have been said about it?" He did. He appointed Col. More, Col. Morrow, Col. Leer, Col. Reeves, Capt. McKeever and Col. R. Johnson, his own relatives, and they are officers of the army. They set about posting guards in and around the White House. When President Grant came in, they paid him a salute, and he asked what they meant, and the next day he sent the troops away, the four companies of cavalry and the regiment of infantry, and for three years not a soldier has been nearer Washington on duty than Fort Washington.

Now what should the country think of a speech like this of Trumbull's? It bristles all over with acrimonious misstatements, so much so that Wilson was clearly right when he said that no man could read it without pronouncing it "disingenuous." We quote again from Wilson's rejoinder:

> Senator Trumbull told you about the encroaching assumption of those in power. I am not a lawyer; Trumbull is. He is a supporter of the Civil Rights bill which went further than any other measure we passed, and he comes here and reproaches us for encroaching and arbitrary power, because we followed the Chairman of the Committee on Judiciary.

In this way Mr. Wilson handled Mr. Trumbull's speech throughout, making a scattering exposure of the latter's obliquities at all points. Speaking of the silly charge that the Republican party is dominated by office-holders, Mr. Wilson said:

> We were told as a reason why that convention is called at Cincinnati that the Republican party is under the control of officeholders. Great God, gentlemen, a party of three and one-half millions of men, strong men, independent men, controlled by a few thousand beggarly office-holders! Why, gentlemen, to be an office-holder is to be a beggar. The offices of this country hardly pay a decent and respectable living to nineteen-twentieths of the men holding office. Now look at the great professions. Look at the lawyers, and remember the enormous fees they receive. Look at the great merchants. Look at the men who build your railroads and telegraphs, and the men engaged in all other great business now-a-days, by which talent and character can find their true action. It is these men, these merchants, these mechanics, these builders of railroads and telegraphs, and planters of the great industries of our time—it is these men and great lawyers who build great houses, have fine pictures and rich libraries, if they ever read them. Are not these the men who have all the comforts and luxuries of life? And now what about these office-holders? Thirty-one thousand of them out of about 60,000 are poor, petty postmasters; 7,000 postmasters' clerks, and 15,000 of these postmasters get less than $200 a year salary. Why, gentlemen, they talk about this convention at Philadelphia as a convention of office-holders. Well, suppose we say the Cincinnati convention is to be an office-seeking convention. But I will not say it. However, you may think what you like about it. But this much I do say, that the national convention that will meet this year at Philadelphia will have fewer office-holders and fewer members of Congress than any that has met for thirty years of the party in power. And now take this home and remember it. Go to any section of our country where there is little in the shape of Government patronage, and you find the Republican party united and supporting the measures of the administration, and almost unanimous for President Grant. Go to other sections. Look at New York, where you have great patronage, and you have dissensions and divisions. I tell you it is the office-holding, office-seeking, and petty ambitions that are disturbing the unity of the Republican party, and that threatens disaster. But, gentlemen, the great ideas, the policy and principles of party are stronger than the party itself. You know it, and I know it.

To ascertain the spirit of the Cincinnati movement it is only necessary to examine the motives of those who lead it. Senator Trumbull clamors for what he calls civil service reform, and goes to Cincinnati to get it. Yet he has been one of the most persistent office brokers in the country, and has had as much to do as any other man with disposing of patronage for personal friendship or political services. President Grant has always been a better civil service reformer than he or any of his associates who are now up for Cincinnati. These gentlemen could not "run" the administration, and for that reason broke with it. A more striking exemplification of hypocrisy than is manifest in their claim to be considered "reformers" has rarely been seen."

The Republican Primaries.

Next Tuesday afternoon the Republican primaries for this county take place. As is usual on such occasions friends of rival candidates are actively at work. Contests like this within the party should be conducted in a way that will leave no bitterness after they are over. Within the party all have a common right to work for such candidates as they prefer. Meetings or clubs are usual on such occasions, and all who work by party methods, proposing themselves to be governed by party usage and expecting others to be governed likewise, have a common right to effect such organization to attain the results they desire as may seem to them advisable,—provided always that fair means be used and all members of the party are allowed fair opportunity to express their preferences or carry out their will. It is quite foolish to allow such contests to become personal or acrimonious; and to assail the motives and conduct of those who simply assert their right to express a preference in the primaries, and propose to be governed by party usages after the nominations are made, is without justification. Let it not be forgotten that all have equal rights within the party. Let no man asperse another's motives because of a difference of opinion as to candidates. Let the right of all to work for the objects of their choice be conceded without question, as well as the right of all to form such organizations, subject to rules of fairness and a regard for rights of others, as they may think fit. In some places men have committed the folly of trying to read each other out of their party because of a difference of opinion in regard to nominations. We trust we shall have no such folly here. Let us have our primaries conducted fairly and a full attendance of the voters of the party. Then all true Republicans, recognizing party usage and caring more for the triumph of their principles than for the success of any person or persons whatever, will support the ticket and elect it.

Comparative Appropriations.

It has been ascertained by the Herald that Massachusetts obtains more appropriations from the General Government than Oregon does, and that paper is indignant thereat. We have here, it explains, a specimen of the treatment we receive from a Radical Congress; and our neighbor sneers at the "little State of Massachusetts" which is the object of such favoritism. Now we undertake to say that in proportion to its population and to the revenue it yields to the Government, Oregon obtains very much larger appropriations than Massachusetts or any Eastern State whatever. While we have a due idea of the growing importance of Oregon, it hardly becomes us to sneer at Massachusetts as a "little" insignificant State. Oregon has one hundred thousand inhabitants. Massachusetts has a million a half, or fifteen to our one. Oregon yields about five hundred thousand dollars revenue per annum. Massachusetts yields fifty millions. The wealth of the two States is as one to fifty. Massachusetts has ten members of Congress. Oregon has one. The Government has always expended for various purposes in Oregon much more money than it has collected here in the shape of revenue. Appropriations for Oregon have been, all things considered, fair and even liberal. True, we want more, and, for that matter, we could never get enough. But it is childish to suppose that Oregon could have as much weight in Congress as the great State of Massachusetts. The Herald would scout such an absurdity if it did not wish to use it to point a paragraph against "Radicalism."

Washington Territory Republican Convention.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE CONVENTION HELD AT KALAMA, W. T., APRIL 29, 1872.

The delegates to this Convention met in the lower story of the Masonic Hall at 11 o'clock A. M., and was called to order by E. P. Ferry, Chairman of the Territorial Central Committee.

A temporary organization was formed by choosing Hon. J. K. Kennedy, of Walla Walla county, President, and Frank H. Winslow, of Jefferson county, Secretary.

On motion, a Committee on Credentials was appointed by the Chair, as follows: C. C. Finkbonner, H. G. Struve, S. D. Maxon, S. W. Beall and J. C. Kellogg.

Convention then adjourned until 2 o'clock P. M.

At 2 o'clock P. M. Convention met pursuant to adjournment.

The Committee on Credentials made the following report:

To the President and Members of the Territorial Republican Convention: Your Committee on Credentials beg leave to report that they have examined the credentials of the several gentlemen claiming seats in this Convention, and find that the following are entitled to seats therein, to-wit:

Clarke County—G. W. Durgin, S. D. Maxon and M. R. Hathaway, 1 vote each.

Chehalis County—Justin Scammon, by H. G. Struve, proxy, 1 vote.

Cowlitz County—A. S. Abernethy, by W. W. McNicken, proxy, 1 vote; S. W. Beall, 1 vote.

Calm County—S. F. Brownfield, 1 vote.

Clickitat County—E. S. Joslyn, ½ vote.

Island County—J. C. Kellogg, 1 vote.

Snohomish County—E. C. Ferguson, by Geo. McConnaha, proxy, 1 vote.

Walla Walla County—P. B. Johnson, by J. K. Kennedy, proxy, 1 vote; Jonathan Pettyjohn, by J. K. Kennedy, proxy, 1 vote; F. W. Paine, by J. K. Kennedy, proxy, 1 vote; Warren Witcher, by J. K. Kennedy, proxy, 1 vote, E. S. Kearney, 1 vote, J. K. Kennedy, 1 vote.

Wahkiakum County—cast by T. Warman.

Whatcom County—cast by C. C. Finkbonner.

Yakima County—E. S. Joslyn, ½ vote.

Your Committee would respectfully represent that there are two sets of delegates claiming to be entitled to seats in this Convention from Thurston county. The credentials of both appear regular on their face, but the parties have failed to produce sufficient facts before the Committee to enable them to decide which set ought to be admitted, and for the sake of avoiding anything that will tend to disturb the harmony of the Convention, we would recommend that both sets of delegates be admitted to all the privileges of members of this Convention. The names of the delegates are as follows: E. P. Ferry, 1 vote, John R. [illegible], 1 vote; L. P. Beach, ½ vote, Marshall Blinn, 1 vote; Elwood Evans, 1 vote; G. W. Miller, ½ vote.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

C. C. Finkbonner, H. G. Struve, S. D. Maxon, J. C. Kellogg, S. W. Beall, Committee.

On motion, the temporary organization was declared permanent.

Whereupon, Hon. J. K. Kennedy, President, ably addressed the Convention, thanking it for the honor of being chosen as presiding officer, declaring his firm adherence to the only great National party now existing, and his abiding faith in the triumph of its great principles.

On motion, a Committee on Order of Business was appointed, consisting of Messrs. Struve, Warman and Kellogg, who reported the following:

1. Report of Committee on Resolutions.
2. Nomination of candidate for Delegate to Congress.
3. Election of two delegates and two alternates to attend the National Republican Convention to be held in Philadelphia, June 5, 1872.
4. Appointment of a Territorial Central Committee, to consist of one member from each Council District.

On motion, a Committee on Resolutions was appointed, consisting of Messrs. E. P. Ferry of Thurston county, George McConnaha of King county, E. S. Kearney of Walla Walla county, Frank H. Winslow of Jefferson county, and Byron Barlow of Pierce county.

On motion, a recess of half an hour was taken.

Upon the Convention being called to order the Committee on Resolutions made the following report, which was unanimously adopted:

1. Resolved, That the Republicans of Washington Territory remain true to the principles, and will hold fast to the organization of the National Republican party.

2. That the administration of President Grant has been marked by prudence, wisdom and success, in managing our national finances and our foreign relations, in its policy with the Indians, in its suppression of disorders in the South; in its efforts to reform the civil service and the revenue department, and especially in its reducing taxation eighty million dollars yearly for the past three years, and yet, at the same time reducing the national debt one hundred million dollars yearly, and for all these reasons it merits our warmest approval, and has our most decided indorsement.

3. That the Constitution of the United States, with all its amendments, is entitled to our most cordial support, and that we will use our best endeavors to uphold its letter and spirit, and to render effective all laws made to enforce this supreme law of the land.

4. That the record of the Republican party, by its emancipation of the slaves of the South, its extension of civil rights to all men, its maintenance of national honor in paying the war debt, in securing pensions and homesteads to the Union soldiers, its giving of public lands to settlers, the economy which it has introduced into all branches of the public service, and its bringing fraud, peculation and corruption to speedy justice, manifests its ability and integrity, and affords overwhelming reasons for its continuation in power.

5. That the encouragement already given to railroads running across the continent to the Pacific coast and to the North Pacific railroad has been the work of the Republican party, in order to bind together in one common prosperity, the most distant sections of our beloved union, and that we rejoice that our own Territory is now about to share in this prosperity, and that we hail with satisfaction the energy, skill and enterprise displayed by the North Pacific Railroad Company, in our own immediate vicinity, as well as east of the Rocky Mountains, in hastening the time when the cars shall transport us directly from Puget Sound to Lake Superior.

6. That we congratulate the Republican party on the success of its policy in bringing currency to a near equality of value with gold, and we hail with pleasure the rapid approach of the time when every paper dollar can be at once exchanged for a dollar in gold or silver without the slightest discount or loss.

7. That while we recognize all the legitimate rights of each State within the limits of its own authority, we are proud to see how truly the great Republican party has made of all the States and Territories one grand nation, whose glory it is to have given complete equality of rights to all men upon its soil, without distinction of race, of birth, or of origin.

8. That while the Democratic party has been a mere party of opposition, without distinctive and vital principles, it does now, by its "new departure" and "passive policy," impliedly recognize the soundness of the principles of the Republican party, and the impossibility of overthrowing them by an open and direct struggle.

9. That we favor a tariff for revenue, but so adjusted as to protect incidentally, though equally, every branch of American industry—agricultural, mechanical, mining, manufacturing and commercial—as well as every section of our common country—North, South, East, West and Central.

10. That we favor such legislation, National and Territorial, as shall encourage the activity and security of labor, and yet protect the investment of capital, so that both may work hand in hand together for the united progress of all our interests of every kind and degree.

11. That we instruct our delegates to the National Convention, to be held at Philadelphia on the 5th day of June next, to cast their votes for Ulysses S. Grant as President of the United States for a second term.

On motion, an informal ballot was taken for the nomination for Delegate to Congress.

E. P. Ferry and M. R. Hathaway were appointed tellers.

Twenty-six votes were cast for the Hon. S. Garfielde, and 3 for Hon. S. W. Brown.

On motion, the Convention proceeded to regular ballot, with the following result: Hon. S. Garfielde, 26 votes; Hon. S. W. Brown, 3 votes.

Before the result of the ballot was declared the delegates from Clarke county requested permission to change their votes from Hon. S. W. Brown to Hon. S. Garfielde, which permission was granted, and all the votes of the Convention having been cast for the Hon. S. Garfielde, he was declared the unanimous nominee of this Convention for Delegate to Congress.

On motion, L. B. Andrews of King county was elected delegate to attend the National Republican Convention at Philadelphia, with L. C. Bond of Walla Walla county as his alternate; and H. G. Struve of Clarke county was elected delegate, with James McNaught of King county as his alternate.

On motion, the following gentlemen were elected members of the Territorial Republican Central Committee, to enter upon the discharge of their duties from and after July 1, 1872: Frederick Drew, Jefferson county, S. W. Brown, Clarke county; Irving Ballard, Pierce county, William Stephens and B. F. Stone, Walla Walla county, W. B. Clarke, Pacific county, L. P. Beach, Thurston county, Gardner Kellogg, King county, C. C. Finkbonner, Whatcom county.

GENERAL NOTES AND NEWS

Astor's income is $2 a minute. Would it were ours.

On the 25th ult., Sarah Meinders, Duluth, 13 years, 5 months, corrosive sublimate for bicarbonate of soda. Apothecary's shop closed for repairs.

"Are you the mate of the ship?" asked an emigrant of the cook, who was an Irishman. "No sir," was the reply, "I am the the man who cooks the mate."

We very frequently hear of Generals capturing pieces of artillery. "What's the use of capturing pieces?" says Mrs. Partington, "why not capture whole ones?"

Cyrus Mason, of Clarksburg, Tennessee, whipped his child to death; the next day he was found trying to hold down the limb of a tree, under sentence of Judge Lynch.

The agent of Beaver Falls Cutlery Company, of Beaver county, Pennsylvania, is now on his way to San Francisco to engage Chinamen to work in the works of that company.

"Anything to amuse the child," was what Mrs. Akers, of Newburgh, said when she gave her four year old boy a butcherknife to play with. Next day they had a funeral to amuse the rest of the children.

Mr. William Davidson, the great real estate dealer of Portland, has sold Judge Humason's property in that city, consisting of a house and lot, for the sum of $7,500 cash. The Judge is well pleased with the sale and speaks very highly of Mr. Davidson as a reliable business man, and recommends him to all in this section who may require the services of an honest, competent and thorough business man in that city.—Dalles Mountaineer.

The stockholders of the Ashland Woolen Factory have authorized the directors to offer it for sale. It has one set of first class machinery and fine water power.

Still Another Remarkable Cure.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 10, 1871.

DR. A. M. LORYEA & CO.—For two years I was afflicted with Rheumatism, and tried all known remedies, but experienced nothing more than a temporary relief, the disease always returning. Some months since I concluded to take your Unk Weed Remedy, and the result was a Speedy and Permanent Cure, the Rheumatism being entirely eradicated from the system. The "UNK" is also a Tonic of the very highest order. It increases the appetite, and invigorates the body. I cheerfully bear testimony to its good effect upon me, and feel sure that it will do all you claim for it.

Very truly yours,
J. W. TRIPP

PLANTATION BITTERS!

S. T.--1860--X.

This wonderful vegetable restorative is the sheet-anchor of the feeble and debilitated. As a tonic and cordial for the aged and languid it has no equal among stomachics. As a remedy for the nervous weakness to which women are especially subject, it is superseding every other stimulant. In all climates, tropical, temperate or frigid, it acts as a specific in every species of disorder which undermines the bodily strength and breaks down the animal spirits.

Beautiful Woman!

HAGAN'S MAGNOLIA BALM gives to the Complexion the Freshness of Youth.

HAGAN'S MAGNOLIA BALM overcomes the flushed appearance caused by heat, fatigue and excitement. It makes the lady of forty appear but twenty, and so natural and perfect that no person can detect its application. By its use the roughest skin is made to rival the pure radiant texture of youthful beauty. It removes redness, blotches and pimples. It contains nothing that will injure the skin in the least.

MAGNOLIA BALM is used by all fashionable ladies in New York, London and Paris. It costs only 75 cents per Bottle, and is sold by all Druggists and Perfumers.

CITY.

As IT WAS —But a very few years have elapsed since Portland assumed . . . her population was more than . . . city and at . . . what are . . . towns . . . much older settled countries than . . . But the principal thing which . . . the general rumors concerning . . . this place . . . which seems to . . . every enterprise and all the . . . enterprises which are established in our midst and the almost general activity to be seen on all hands. But a short time ago and one might have heard constant predictions that the time was coming when Portland would cease in her rapid growth and some . . . on the northwest coast would be the . . . center of commerce and capital for this part of the world. But of late we hear nothing . . . All admit that this city is established on too solid a basis and that her position too well fortified by all the natural circumstances which tend to secure the permanent growth and prosperity of a city to allow of a retrograde in her history. These remarks are induced by an observation of the change of the tone of public sentiment in regard to Portland's chances of maintaining her position as the metropolis of the northwest coast, and the numerous improvements now going on and contemplated within her borders. Before the close of another decade we expect to see the hills back of town denuded of their forests and teeming with a busy population engaged in all the industrial enterprises of a . . . civilization. We shall from time to time . . . many of the indications which point . . . directly at the fulfillment of the prognostications of our future as a large commercial city.

CONSCIENCE STRICKEN —A lady living up town had a muff taken out of her house about six weeks ago. At the time the muff was lying on a stand near an open window and was taken out in the day-time. It was considered as having been . . . by some of the many light fingered parties who have committed the numerous petty larcenies in our city during the past two months and had . . . been forgotten. On last Saturday a small . . . over ten years of age returned it to the owner, saying that she and a small playmate had taken it through the open window and that she had kept it as long as she could, but it made her feel so bad that she had to bring it back. She asked that her name should not be told and that . . . by the conscience stricken little . . . will be faithfully kept.

. . . CERTIFICATE —There is now in the market a new style of marriage certificates. They are printed on card board, and are twelve by twenty inches. At the top of the card is a representation of a boat with two parties male and female, seated in it. The words usually printed . . . follow, and under the names of the groom and bride are cut places to allow of their carte de visite being put in. Over the minister's name is another place for his portrait. The sides of the card are covered with appropriate . . .

. . . —In our issue of yesterday was . . . the following puzzle: "If Moses had been the son of Pharaoh's daughter then he would have been the daughter of Pharaoh's son." Rev. J L Daly sends us the following as an aid in solving the puzzle in the sentence. "The puzzle . . . in the OREGONIAN about Pharaoh's . . . and Moses I undertake to answer by . . . maxim of 'Euclid' 'Things which are equal to the same are equal to one another' . . . this short answer as an incentive to . . ."

AN UNGALLANT WRETCH —C Hill the vagrant who is serving out his term of ten days in the city jail, Saturday, had a little "unpleasantness" with a gentleman who wears a star. He had some words with one of the dishonored vessels of the "frailer sort" and was so ungallant as to knock her down and give her several kicks. The wretch was seen by an officer and fled. He was . . . watched and pursued and was taken into custody. The gentleman has had a brief . . . with Judge Denny.

FOR THE . . .—We are at a loss to know why . . . journals persist in misrepre- . . . of this city. For instance, we . . . the New York Times: "A Portland . . . upon to find a verdict for . . . up the sums each of the twelve . . . paper, and averaged the amount. The . . . was $4 42 and a fraction, but, as they . . . to appear mean they reported the . . . of $4 42 to the Court." The above intelligence . . . news to this public.

. . .—The last number of the San Francisco Chronicle contains some very laughable cartoons illustrative of the recent earthquake . . . in California. It is a case however, where the fun is only enjoyable by two parties—the artist and the spectator—to the discomfiture of the third party who is represented as flying . . . a condition bordering on extreme nudity and complete distraction.

UP SALT RIVER —A neat canoe dug from a . . . log, can be seen on the back stoop of the . . . Hotel. The intention of the owner is to polish up and paint the craft and have it ready by the 3d of June. This little dug out will be large enough to accommodate Burnett but the other Democratic candidates will be compelled to charter a larger vessel to go up Salt river.

DEATH.—The Stowe Journal of Vermont under date of April 13th contains the following notice: "Colonel Hiram Perkins died last Monday at his residence in this town. He has been . . . a prominent citizen and has held several offices of honor and responsibility. The deceased was the father of Mr O H Perkins, of the firm of Quimby & Perkins, of this city."

. . .—The following persons were admitted to citizenship in Judge Deady's Court yesterday: J . . . Freeman a native of Prussia; John Marr, a native of Canada; James W Arch . . ., a native of England; Joseph Bauer a native of Prussia; Joseph F Curtis a native of . . .; Charles Coldwell a native of England.

CHANGE.—From and after date Wells Fargo & Co will cease to transact a banking business in this city, but will devote hereafter their entire attention to the express business. It is to be regretted that this action has been determined upon as the bank has been a great accommodation to . . . bankers and citizens.

. . . —Coupon railroad tickets have been issued in this city by Mr G B Whitehouse to the leading cities: New York, Boston, Washington, Baltimore, Buffalo, Philadelphia, Pittsburg, Harrisburg, Albany, Chicago, Kansas City, St Louis and Omaha. Tickets also to all the principal towns of Idaho Territory.

NARROW ESCAPE —A fellow who had no respect . . . in our city would in all probability have appeared in the police court this morning as a d d . . . a narrow escape yesterday by getting aboard the ferryboat just as it was starting from this side. An officer was at his heels but a little too late for the boat.

TAX DUE.—To day the annual income tax falls fully due, and all who were fortunate enough during the past year to be the recipient of $2,000 or more are requested to contribute a portion of it to the exchequer of Uncle Sam. If they don't comply by and by they will be compelled to do so.

MATRIMONIAL.—April with its changing phases of rain and sunshine has not been productive of matrimony, if we are to judge from the county records. During March there were . . . and only 26 in April.

NUMBER OF ARRESTS —During the month of April there were 98 arrests made by the police. This number is smaller by . . . than the arrests of the previous month.

DEFUNCT CANINES —For the month ending April 30th the Poundmaster reports that 33 dogs were killed. It was not a good month for dogs either.

SEWING SCHOOL —The young ladies of the sewing school are requested to meet at the Unitarian Chapel to-day at ten o'clock A M.

CAN'T BE OUTDONE.—Notwithstanding the many inducements offered by other Clothing houses in this city to please the public, the firm of J O'Neil & Co 93 First street, are not to be outdone in the matter of low prices or quality of goods. They have received and are receiving large in . . . of Clothing and Furnishing goods and are prepared to fill all orders that may be extended to them with . . . dispatch and satisfaction to buyers. . . . the Chesnut Shirt and other novelties are among the attractions they offer.

MAY DAY

SOMETHING OF ITS ORIGIN AND OBSERVANCES

To day is the 1st of May—as Tennyson has exquisitely sung "the maddest merriest day of all the year." The cherished memories of the first day of May are redolent with flowers and the joyous pleasures of bygone days. It is a day when the old forget all decrepitude and the young and innocent lose themselves to the sweet abandon of pleasant sport and untrammeled freedom. Who of us . . . back over the chasm of the past . . . and furrowed by the rude hand of time . . . with feelings of delightful retrospection on the many happy hours spent in the celebration of the first day of the gentle month. How vividly we remember such features of the season—the flowers, the crowning of the Queen, the May pole, floral offerings and . . . sports upon the green and fragrant sward.

The celebration of May day when at early dawn the rising May is saluted with . . . and flowerets are gathered in her honor to deck the May pole and the Queen of May is of great antiquity. The month of May itself marking the return of genial weather has generally been invested with a festive character. The Jewish Pentecost and the Whitsuntide holidays are indirectly connected with the month of flowers. In the former festival the synagogues and houses of the Jews are almost universally draped in flowers as . . . of joyful spring.

In England where the custom attained its greatest significance the observance of May day was generally for many centuries back. Chaucer—and even earlier poets—abound in allusions to its pleasures as well as in eulogiums on the month of May. Later poets such as Spenser, Herrick, Shakespeare and Milton give us captivating pictures of the festival. Spenser in his "Shepherd's Calendar," Herrick in his "Corinna," and Milton in his "Ode to May Morning" have as it were photographed the tone and temper of their times in regard to the rites and duties of May day. In the sixteenth century all classes did honor to May. The young would rise a little after midnight and walking to a neighboring grove would tear down branches from trees, which they adorned with wreaths and nosegays. About sunrise they returned home in triumph, to deck their doors and windows with the flowery spoil.

May day opened with a regular in gathering of flowers but during the day various other festivities were arranged. Stow in his "Survey of London 1603, tells us that "warlike shews archery and morrisdancers were the amusements of the noon while masks, stage plays and bonfires filled the evening with merriment." A huge May pole was erected anointed with fluttering garlands, about which rings of joyful dancers would be formed. Irving in his "Sketch Book," records his delight at seeing one of these poles with its gay accompaniments. In his "Bracebridge Hall" he devotes a whole chapter to the mysteries of May day in a village in Yorkshire. The Queen of the May, whom Tennyson has so touchingly drawn in one of his finest poems, was a privileged character. She was the prettiest and gentlest maid in the village, and half covered with flowers, she used to seat herself in a bower near the pole, receiving gracefully the homage of her subjects, who laid garlands as festive offerings at her shrine.

The Floralia, held in worship of Flora the Queen of Flowers, were annual festivals among the Romans about the beginning of May, and the Greeks similarly entertained themselves. These feasts, at first confined to the country, became spectacles of mirth and innocence, but afterwards, extending to the towns, degenerated into scenes of ribaldry and indecency. The Druids used to light large fires on the hilltops on the eve of May to herald Spring and its delights. The Keltic festival of Beltein—that is, according to Leigh Hunt, Bel temps, the fine time or season—was intimately connected with the rites of May.

During the fifteenth and sixteenth centuries more particularly the Robin Hood games, designed to illustrate the exploits of that legendary chief, were closely connected with the May day sports. London used to have local rites of its own on this day, one still survives, the chimney sweep procession, composed of a merry band of men of two or three hundred men in curious costumes, a woman in a gaily spangled dress, and "Jack in the Green, a fellow who is slyly concealed in a tall frame of herbs and flowers decorated with a flag at top." Accompanied by the soul stirring drum and spirit moving fife they stop here and there in the metropolis, soliciting pennies on their route. The London milkmaids up to the beginning of the present century we think, were wont to dance to the sound of the fiddle before the homes of their customers, clad in fantastic dresses and wreathed in flowers.

The people of this State hold these time honored festivals in lighter esteem in that the first of May is not generally observed with that strictness and profusion of floral tributes as elsewhere in the United States or Europe. Picnics and excursions, given some time during the first of May, and designated as "May Picnics," in which dancing and other games constitute the principal feature of the occasion, are generally the extent to which this ancient custom is observed. Occasionally the first day of May is celebrated here both by the young and old in the usual manner of crowning the Queen, etc. The customs and observances of the Old World are evidently gradually falling into disuse among the Americans.

Infection in the Air

At this season the vegetable world takes a new lease of life but to the sensitive and delicate members of the human family it is a time of danger and of much suffering. The moisture which rises from the earth and hangs suspended over it in the form of morning and evening mists and fogs holds in solution so to speak the mephitic elements which produce fever and ague, remittent fevers, rheumatism, and many painful nervous disturbances, and which aggravate dyspepsia, biliousness and all the ailments of the stomach and bowels. This therefore is a critical period of the year, a season when the renovating, refreshing and purifying operation of the mightiest of all vegetable tonics and alteratives, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is salvation to the weak and the best security for the continuance of the health and vigor of the strong. Now is the time not only to protect the system against the common ailments of the season but to prevent the disorders incident to a warmer temperature. Let not the exhausting heats of the summer months find you unprepared to meet them. A course of Hostetter's Bitters commenced now will put all the physical energies in fighting trim, double the capacity of the internal organs to repel the causes of disease, . . . the brain and clear it of all hypochondriacal cobwebs, and place the whole physique in an attitude of defence with every available point fortified and guarded and as nearly invulnerable to unwholesome influences as it is possible for the human structure to be.

Charles Francis Adams

This gentleman has loomed up [illegible] into a candidate for the Presidency. It is possible that he may be nominated [illegible] nati and the Democratic organ [illegible] ing the masses of their party to ascertain whether they will vote for him. [illegible] graph recently mentioned a letter written by him which has been praised by the New York World and other Democratic papers. We present the letter herewith:

Boston, March 15.

My Dear Mr Wells: I have received your letter and will answer it frankly. I do not want the nomination and could only be induced to consider it by circumstances under which it might be made. If the call on me were an unequivocal one, based on confidence in my character earned in public life and a belief that I would carry out in practice the principles which I proposed, then indeed would come a test of my courage in an emergency. But if I am to be vouched for and have assurances given that I am honest you will be so kind as to draw me out of that crowd. With regard to what I understand to be the declaration of principles which have been made it would be ridiculous in me to stand haggling over them. With the single exception of ambiguity I see nothing which any Republican or Democrat would not accept. Indeed, I should wonder at any one who denied them. The difficulty is not in professions. It lies everywhere only in the manner in which they are carried into practice. If I have succeeded in making myself understood you will perceive that I can give no authority to any one to act or to speak for me in the premises. I never had a moment's belief that when it came to the point any one so entirely isolated as I am from all public and political associations of any kind could be made acceptable as a candidate for public office, but I am so unlucky as to value that independence more highly than an election which is to be sought by a sacrifice of it. This is not inconsistent since the grateful recognition and very flattering estimates made of my services in many and high quarters, but I cannot consent to haggle with them for power. If the good people who meet at Cincinnati really believe that they need such an anomalous being as I am they must express it in a manner to convince me that it is desired, or their labor will be thrown away.

I am, with great respect, yours, etc.,
CHARLES FRANCIS ADAMS.
David A. Wells, Esq., Norwich, Conn.

The Democratic Game

Referring to Democratic practices in this State the Jacksonville Sentinel pertinently says:

The Democratic party of New York sold out to the Tammany Ring, and if Democratic politicians of this State can be believed in the charges that they make against each other for accepting salt money, the Democratic Legislature sold out generally to whoever bid the highest. The Lock Company bought a part on a margin of $75,000. The land grabbers got another slice and Kelly the balance.

The great cry of the leaders of the Democratic party is, that if the people will only trust them another time they will pass a law reducing the freight on our railroads. John Burnett and the leaders of the party claim that they have a right to regulate the price of freight on all the railroads in the State. If they have this right, as they claim, why haven't they done it before this? The Democrats have had control of the Legislature for the last four years, and no such law has been passed. What has been the matter? Has not Ben offered you enough money to pass a law that will enable him to collect higher freight than he is now collecting? No one that knows your history believes that he has, or you would have had any kind of a law whittled out for him that might have best suited his fancy. You were not backward in passing laws for the land grabbers and the Lock Company when you saw the salt. Do you want another four years to experiment with Ben to see if you can't make him come out?

A Fight with an Anaconda.—The Detroit Free Press says:

A day or two ago Abraham Hart having rented the building on the northern corner of Woodward Avenue and Bridge street went into the cellar for the purpose of cleaning out a mass of rubbish that had accumulated there during several months while the premises had been unoccupied. As he reached the foot of the stairs, with a shovel in his hands the first object he encountered was a monstrous anaconda coiled and evidently just prepared for an assault. Hart's instinctive purpose was to bolt and leave his snakeship monarch of the cellar, but fearing that he might not be able to effect a successful retreat he boldly stood his ground. Using the shovel as a weapon, he met the snake's onslaught pluckily and soon succeeded in vanquishing his foe by a few blows with the sharp edges of his handy weapon. The snake was subsequently found to measure about twelve feet in length and six inches thick in its largest part. Its presence there is explained by the fact that last fall the building was occupied several weeks by a side show, and that the proprietor thinking his anaconda dead threw it into the cellar. It turned out, however, that it was only torpid, and came out in the spring as lively as a cricket and fierce enough to attack anything palatable, from a rabbit to an elephant.

Weather Map.—The Seattle Dispatch is in receipt of a daily weather map issued at Washington by the War Department. This map indicates the state of weather at all prominent points, from Portland, Maine to Portland-on-the-Wallamet, and from Key West, Florida, to Fort Benton at the head of the Missouri river, and Galveston on the Southern coast. The map also indicates the probabilities for the ensuing twenty four hours and specifically informs the mariner whether on the Atlantic, Pacific or Gulf whether it is safe for him to put to sea.

No better advertisement of this unequaled climate could be made than on the 1st of April to have this weather map show the fact of the thermometer here indicating 60 degrees, and at Portland, Maine 20 degrees. Cherry trees in full bloom here and ice two feet thick there with trains snow bound on all the roads.

A Titless Criminal.—It is terrible to think of the agonies of a woman of culture and refinement when suffering under an attack of that dread disease kleptomania. An instance of heart-rendering intensity took place the other day in Boston. An elegantly dressed woman was detected in the very act of plagiarizing a pair of silk stockings. She started, turned pale and burst into tears suddenly conscious of her guilt and then in the most agonized manner besought the proprietor to release her and offered him a twenty dollar note for the stockings. The gentleman kindly reasoned with the afflicted woman and taking the price of the stockings returned her the change from the twenty dollar note. The poor woman then disappeared and was heard of no more, although her bank note was, as it was counterfeit.

Gold in New York 111¾

Portland legal tender rates, 90c buying and 91c selling.

Wheat in Liverpool April 30th was quoted at 12s 1d@12s 4d.

The bark Helen W. Almy sailed this afternoon for San Francisco with the following freight: 72 bundles hoops, 3,000 sks wheat, 6,514 qr sks flour, 3,500 staves, 3,990 hf sks flour, 60 empty barrels.

The Melancthon will also sail this afternoon having finished discharging. She will receive a cargo of Coal from Coos Bay for San Francisco.

Sundry supplies for the army are advertised for in our columns this morning by Capt. Bell, Chief C. S. Department of the Columbia.

Secretary Boutwell has often been seriously blamed for locking up gold. A very serious misconception exists regarding the uses to which Mr Boutwell reserves his large gold balance, now amounting to $120,000,000. His demand liabilities actually absorb all but 10,000,000 of this balance, to-wit: outstanding gold certificates $30,000,000, past due called bonds 21,000,000, Mexican indemnity and old obligations $2,000,000, past due interest, $6,000,000, accrued interest, $3,000,000, three per cent. demand certificates $20,000,000; total $111,000,000. As a matter of course these obligations are not all likely to be presented simultaneously, but it is some satisfaction to know that the Government, instead of being bankrupt can not only pay its current expenses but can also meet its outstanding past due obligations. From this statement it will be seen that the complaint against the Secretary for locking up gold is unfounded.

The following are extracts from the Plaindealer, a paper published at Roseburg, in Umpqua valley:

The rapid advent of the railroad into the heart of the Umpqua valley forces the question upon our merchants and farmers whether our trade shall in the future flow to San Francisco or Portland. Ever since 1852 this trade has gone to the former place. From a small beginning it has steadily increased until now the imports at the month of the Umpqua river amounts to 3,000 tons, while the exports are much more. Our exports by sea consists of Wool, Bacon, Hides and a small proportion of Grain. The most of the stock-cattle, horses, hogs and sheep—are driven south. The value of these exports can only be approximated. It is safe to say, however, that this spring clip of Wool will realize at least $250,000 in coin, while the remaining exports will amount to as much more. Heretofore very little grain has been raised for shipment, but should the railroad company make such a discrimination in the tariff of freights as to enable our farmers to ship with profit the amount raised will astonish any one not intimately acquainted with the capabilities of the county. * * * * * Already the direct importations are very large as we know from a personal visit to several of the leading houses, and we were assured that in all branches prices were as low as in San Francisco and in some less. We confess that we are influenced on this question somewhat by a feeling of State pride. For twenty years the wealth of Oregon has been poured into the lap of the "Golden City" without any adequate return, and all this time they have gored our very existence. The trade of the whole State concentrated at Portland will build a city of which we may well be proud and at the same time add to the prosperity of the State.

[illegible] Portland [illegible] will be [illegible] Portland will gain as much by obtaining this trade as the Umpqua country will gain by [illegible]
